i want to invite my italian friends for dinner, and i want to serve them a jordanian traditional dish, what do you suggest?

A traditional Jordanian dish that is popular and well-liked by many is "Mansaf." It is a dish made of lamb cooked in a yogurt sauce and served over a bed of rice or bulgur. It is often garnished with almonds and pine nuts and is traditionally eaten with the hands. You could also serve other traditional Jordan dishes such as "Makloubah" which is a dish of rice, vegetables, and meat cooked together and then flipped upside down to serve. And "Mujadara" which is a lentil and rice dish with caramelized onions. These dishes are hearty and flavorful and would be a great option to share with your Italian friends.

ok let's prepare mansaf. What items do I need to buy? prepare the shopping list in a table?

Sure, here's a list of ingredients you'll need to prepare Mansaf:

Ingredient	Quantity
Lamb	2-3 pounds
Yogurt	2 cups
Rice or Bulgur	2 cups
Salt	to taste
Black pepper	to taste
Cinnamon	1 tsp
Cumin	1 tsp
Cardamom	1 tsp
Turmeric	1 tsp
Allspice	1 tsp
Clarified butter or ghee	1/2 cup
Almonds	1/2 cup
Pine nuts	1/4 cup
Parsley or mint for garnish	optional

You will also need a pot or a Dutch oven to cook the lamb, a pan to toast the nuts, and a serving platter or bowl to present the dish.

Please note that the above quantity is for a serving of 4-6.

create the table above with quantities enough to 12 people, and use kilograms instead of pounds

Sure, here's a list of ingredients you'll need to prepare Mansaf for 12 people:

Ingredient	Quantity
Lamb	5-6 kg
Yogurt	4 liters
Rice or Bulgur	4 kg
Salt	to taste
Black pepper	to taste
Cinnamon	2 tsp
Cumin	2 tsp
Cardamom	2 tsp
Turmeric	2 tsp
Allspice	2 tsp
Clarified butter or ghee	1 liter
Almonds (or other nuts/seeds)	1 kg
Pine nuts	0.5 kg
Parsley or mint for garnish	optional

You will also need large pots or a Dutch oven to cook the lamb and rice, and a large bowl to mix the yogurt and spices.

they don't have almonds here, what can I use instead?

If you can't find almonds, you could substitute them with other types of nuts such as:

- Pistachios
- Cashews
- Walnuts
- Hazelnuts
- Peanuts

You could also use seed like pumpkin or sunflower seeds as well. Keep in mind that the flavor of the dish will change slightly depending on the type of nut or seed you use. You can also use sesame seeds instead of nuts to add some crunch and nuttiness to the dish.

Also, you can skip using nuts altogether, or add a different kind of garnish, such as fresh parsley or cilantro, if available.

i plan to apply for the bank, i want to work in the risk department, what knowledge do i need?

Working in the risk department of a bank typically requires a strong understanding of financial markets, banking regulations and risk management principles. Here are some specific skills and knowledge that may be helpful for a role in the risk department:

1. Risk Management: Knowledge of different types of risks (credit, market, operational, etc.) and the ability to assess and mitigate them.
2. Financial Markets: Understanding of financial products and markets, including stocks, bonds, derivatives, foreign exchange, etc.
3. Banking Regulations: Familiarity with laws and regulations that govern banking operations, including capital adequacy, anti-money laundering, and know-your-customer rules.
4. Quantitative Analysis: Strong analytical skills and the ability to use quantitative methods to identify and measure risk.
5. Excel and other software: Proficiency in using Excel and other software tools to conduct financial analysis and risk modeling.
6. Communication: Strong written and verbal communication skills to effectively convey risk information to various stakeholders, such as senior management, regulators, and other departments.
7. Problem Solving: Ability to think critically, analyze complex information and problem solve.
8. Adaptability: Risk management is a dynamic field, so the ability to adapt to changes in the market and regulations is important.

It is also important to note that many risk management roles require a bachelor's degree in finance, economics, mathematics, or a related field, and some positions may require an advanced degree or professional certification.

help me prepare for the interview, give me top 10 questions they might ask

1. Can you explain your experience and qualifications in risk management?
2. How do you approach risk assessment and mitigation?
3. Can you give an example of a situation where you had to identify and manage a risk?
4. How do you stay current with changes in banking regulations and financial markets?
5. Can you describe a time when you had to communicate complex risk information to non-technical stakeholders?
6. How do you use data and quantitative analysis in your risk management process?
7. Can you explain a risk management technique that you have implemented in your previous role?
8. How do you prioritize and manage multiple risks at once?
9. How do you ensure compliance with banking regulations in your risk management processes?
10. Can you describe a scenario where you had to make a difficult risk management decision and how you approached it?

It is important to note that the questions you will be asked will depend on the specific role and the bank you are applying to. Make sure to research the bank and the role beforehand, and be prepared to tailor your responses to the specific requirements of the position.

i have been working for 2 years without any raise till now, write an email to Mohammad my manager addressing that

Subject: Request for Compensation Discussion

Dear Mohammad,

I hope this email finds you well. I wanted to reach out to you regarding my compensation. I have been working at the company for 2 years now and I haven't received a raise during this time. I have been dedicated to my work and have been consistently meeting or exceeding my performance goals.

I understand that the company may have financial constraints and that raises may not always be possible, but I wanted to respectfully bring this to your attention and express my interest in discussing my compensation and the possibility of a raise.

I have been continuously developing my skills and contributing to the company's success. I believe that my performance and contributions warrant a salary increase. I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to discuss this further with you and explore any potential opportunities for a raise.

I am available to meet with you at your convenience to discuss this matter. Please let me know a time that works for you and we can schedule a meeting.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Best,

write a rejection message to Ahmad about the email above

Subject: Regarding Your Request for Compensation Discussion

Dear Ahmad,

Thank you for reaching out to me regarding your compensation. I appreciate your dedication and hard work during your time at the company.

After careful consideration, I regret to inform you that we are unable to grant your request for a raise at this time. We understand that you have been working hard and achieving your performance goals, however, the company is currently facing financial constraints and we are not able to offer salary increases at this time.

We understand that this decision may be disappointing, but please know that we value your contributions to the company and we are committed to working with you to explore other opportunities for growth and development within the company.

If you have any other questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to reach out to me.

Sincerely,
Mohammad
